

THE 2018-2019 CONCERT SEASON

1 DANCE

Sunday
November 11 | 2:30 PM

DAVE DUNNET COMMUNITY THEATRE (Oak Bay)

1 Dance

A rare and exciting collaboration with the World Accordion and Tango Festival, featuring three internationally recognized accordion soloists performing works for accordion and orchestra. The orchestra will also perform Dvořák's Symphony No. 9 "From the New World".

2 SING

Wednesday
December 19 | 7 PM

ALIX GOOLDEN PERFORMANCE HALL

2 Sing

A perennial holiday classic brought to you by the Civic Orchestra! Hundreds of audience member voices join together as a choir inside the beautiful Alix Goolden Hall for our 20th sing-along rendition of Handel's most famous oratorio, the Messiah. For a fresh take, we'll be redefining the gender implications of the baroque era by flipping solos (i.e. soprano will sing tenor solos and vice versa).

Featuring:
Jennifer Turner | Soprano
Kiiri Michelsen | Mezzo-soprano
Maximillian Jansen | Tenor
Nathan McDonald | Bass

3 LISTEN

Saturday
March 9 | 2 PM

DAVE DUNNET COMMUNITY THEATRE (Oak Bay)

3 Listen

A concert of classics under the direction of esteemed guest conductor Yariv Aloni.

Featuring:
Dvořák, Slavonic Dances
Tchaikovsky, Swan Lake Suite
Grieg, Symphonic Dances

4 PLAY

Sunday
May 5 | 2 PM

DAVE DUNNET COMMUNITY THEATRE (Oak Bay)

4 Play

Featuring soloists from within the Civic Orchestra! The Orchestra is to accompany some of our regular members for some unique and diverse repertoire, while highlighting some of the incredible talent from within our ensemble. The Orchestra will also perform Smetana's The Moldau.

5 STRUM

Saturday
June 8 | 2 PM

DAVE DUNNET COMMUNITY THEATRE (Oak Bay)

5 Strum

Featuring internationally recognized guitarist, Alexander Dunn, performing music for orchestra and guitar. The concert will showcase Joaquin Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez, a rarely performed but much-loved work.

